SHEEP SHOW GUIDELINES

1. Nonrefundable entry fee of $2.00 per animal/fleece must accompany entry form. Please make checks payable to the "Lebanon Country Fair". Entries close when the pens are full. No entries will be accepted after July 24. Exhibitors must submit a copy of their health papers with entries. Exhibitors from last year have first privileges to exhibit this year. If space is not available, you will be placed on a waiting list for next year.

2. Animals must be penned by 3:00PM Friday, July 26, and remain on fairgrounds until 5:00PM Sunday. Fleeces must also be on display by 3:00PM Friday. Exhibitors traveling the farthest distance will be released first. Please indicate your travel time in the top, right hand corner of the entry form so dismissal can be arranged accordingly. Be prepared to assist in breaking down/cleaning the pens prior to departure. Please remember to bring forks, rakes, etc.

3. Exhibitors are limited to two breeds, and may have no more than two entries per class (only one entry per group class). Limit of 15 animals/4 fleeces per operating farm/exhibitor group. Limit of 2 fleeces per exhibitor per class.

4. All sheep must have an official health certificate issued by Connecticut Department of Agriculture for the current year, with proof of rabies vaccination, dated at least 30 days prior to the show. Animals must comply with State Scrapie Regulations. Animals must be free of visible signs of poor conditions, as well as infectious or contagious diseases. The superintendent and/or health official shall decide the acceptance or rejection of sheep.

5. The exhibitor will furnish grain and hay, and is responsible for watering their animals. Exhibitors must supply their own straw bedding.

6. All animals registered under separate breed associations will compete separately. Registration papers must be made available to the superintendent prior to judging. Judges decision is final. Any dispute of the judges decision will result in immediate forfeit of premiums. Owner or shepherd must be present at the time of judging. The Superintendent may split classes as deemed necessary.

7. All animals must be clean and fit as each breed association requires. All animals must be shown on a halter. Exhibitors are expected to keep aisles clean and clear.

8. Show order is as it appears in this book, and alphabetically by breed. Potluck supper will be held Saturday evening in the sheep barn. Please bring something to share!
